NAI Southern Real Estate brokers recognized

Charlotte's NAI Southern Real Estate brokerage team enjoyed recognition at the recent Deal Makers Awards Program sponsored by the Charlotte Commercial Board of Realtors.

The program recognizes the region's top commercial real estate producers each year.

The 130 applicants completed more than 3,750 transactions, which is an 18 percent increase over 2011, according to the group's president, A. Scott Hensley. The deals combined totaled more than $1.8 billion.

"These are phenomenal numbers and is a testament the Charlotte commercial real estate market is well on its way back to business," Hensley said.

The NAI Southern Real Estate brokers honored include: Billy Cooper, David Goode, and Mike Wiles, who were recognized for production volume between $10 million and $14.9 million.

Cooper was recognized as the 2nd leading retail broker based on volume for the local market.

Mac Barksdale, Rob Settle, David Simpson, Vince Sumner, and Jay Vaughn were recognized for production volume between $2 million and $9.9 million.
